

OBHC President Search

Oklahoma Baptist Homes for Children (OBHC) is prayerfully seeking its next President. OBHC has ministry locations including Baptist Children's Homes in Oklahoma City and Owasso, Boys Ranch Town in Edmond, and the Baptist Home for Girls near Madill, as well as Hope Pregnancy Centers across the state.

The OBHC President is responsible for all operations and administering policies established by the Board of Trustees. The President reports to the Board of Trustees and provides direct supervision to all vice presidents, the preparation of annual budgets, the management of financial resources, the completion of an annual audit, the meeting of all legal and accreditation requirements, and the securing of financial resources plus other position requirements.

Qualified applications must have a proven track record of ministry leadership, being a person of vision and character able to lead this storied Baptist ministry that has served children and families for more than 100 years. Managerial experience should include a record of working with governing bodies, skills in fundraising and donor relations, personnel supervision, and financial resource development.
